

Fort Hood National Prayer Breakfast

February 19, 2016 – 7:00 am

Keynote Speaker: MSG Eddy Ford
89th Military Police Brigade

“Deployed numerous times to various locations to include 4 combat tours to Iraq, MSG Eddy Ford has been on the front lines of history in our nations wars for over 20 years. He was with the Screaming Eagles during their historic push into Baghdad, and was with the 40th MP Battalion as one of the last boots on ground in Baghdad before the Troop withdraw. He has been highly decorated for his service to include earning multiple Bronze Stars, a “V” device, a Purple Heart, and has been inducted into both the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club and the Order of the Marechausee. This dynamic public speaker talks of the value of Spiritual resources during combat from a war fighter’s perspective in a way that inspires all who listen.”
